CASE: Chaderick Ingram

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Sonia Satchell, Human Trafficking Unit

District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert announced that 35-year-old Chaderick Ingram was convicted by jury of human trafficking and pandering.

The victim was staying in Sacramento with her boyfriend temporarily, and met Ingram through mutual friends. On June 9, 2014, Ingram took her from the apartment where she was staying, beat her and stole all of her personal property. He then created an advertisement on a prostitution and escort website. He also forced the victim to walk the streets on two occasions, threatening her and her family if she did not comply. The victim managed to escape and called 911. She was with Ingram for approximately three days.

Ingram faces a potential maximum sentence of 21 years, 4 months in prison. Sentencing is set for August 7, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. in Department 36 before the Honorable Gerrit Wood.
