CASE OF INTEREST

Woman Sentenced for Child Sexual Assault

DATE: July 29, 2016

CASE: Stormy Mollissa Myers

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Quirina Orozco, Special Assault & Child Abuse Unit

The Honorable Sharon Lueras sentenced Stormy Mollissa Myers to 15 years to life in prison. On September 23, 2015, Myers pled guilty to committing a sex act with a child under 10 years old and committing lewd acts upon a child.

In January 2013, a citizen tried to text a photo of her 8-year-old daughter to a family member. The photo was instead received by Jason Wymer, who was unknown to the sender. Wymer began texting the sender requesting more photos and began communicating in a sexually explicit manner to who he thought was an 8 year old. The FBI began an investigation, which revealed thousands of images and videos of child pornography taken from 2010 to 2011 in Sacramento and San Joaquin counties. The images included children and toddlers engaged in sexual acts with adults. Several images showed a 3-year-old child being sexually abused by Wymer and Myers.

On October 9, 2015, a jury convicted Jason Wymer of multiple sexual assault and exploitation charges. Wymer received a sentence of 100 years to life plus 9 years, 8 months in prison.
