Issue 8

GROUP PURPOSE

Why are we here:

To support persons who survive the violent death of someone close as they seek to recover;

To provide contact with similarly bereaved persons and establish self-help groups that meet regularly;

To provide information about the grieving process and the criminal justice system as they pertain to survivors of a homicide;

To communicate with professionals in the helping fields, about the problems faced by those surviving a homicide and to increase society's awareness of these issues.

The Sacramento Chapter of POMC
2022 NATIONAL DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

Monday Sept 26th, 2022

From 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm

California State Capitol– west steps

This observance pays tribute to murder victims everywhere.

Please join the Sacramento Area Chapter of Parents Of Murdered Children (POMC) for a ceremony honoring the memory of our loved ones who have died by violence. There will be a candlelight ceremony immediately after the program.

For more information about the Sacramento Area Chapter of POMC, please call Misty Foster @ 916-879-4541, or visit the website at www.pomc.org/sacramento.

You can shed tears that she is gone,
or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her only that she is gone,
or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back.

Or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

~ David Harkins
