

HOMICIDE SUPPORT NETWORK

Sacramento County District Attorney's Office

December 2025

<http://www.sacda.org/helpingvictims/victim-witness/>

Issue 10

GROUP MISSION & PURPOSE

Sacramento Homicide Support Network is a support group that offers emotional support to individuals and families facing the trauma of having a loved one murdered.

We strive to provide a safe, caring, non - judgmental and confidential space for grieving families that emphasizes hope and healing through a most difficult journey.

The Network consists of the District Attorney's Victim Witness Program, Law Enforcement Chaplains and concerned individuals who, like you, have faced this tragedy.

Why are we here:

To support persons who survive the violent death of someone close as they seek to recover;

To provide contact with similarly bereaved persons and establish self-help groups that meet regularly;

To provide information about the grieving process and the criminal justice system as they pertain to survivors of a homicide;

To communicate with professionals in the helping fields, about the problems faced by those surviving a homicide and to increase society's awareness of these issues.

Art Journals from Art Bereavement Group

Trained art therapists and volunteers lead the Children's Bereavement Art Group in Sacramento and Roseville. We offer a comforting space for children ages 4-17 to express their emotions through art after losing a loved one.

Our group helps children and teens feel understood by their peers, provides art materials for healthy grief expression and supports the entire family with guidance and education throughout the grief process.

For more information and to register a child, call

916-887-5275 (Sacramento)

Or 916-797-7850 (Roseville).

Christmas Memories

by Sandy Siewers

When snowflakes dance on winter winds
And colored lights shine Christmas cheer,
When children's laughter fills the air
And family gathers from far and near,
I try to celebrate with them
And not let my hurting show,
But the empty spaces within my heart,
At this season, seems to grow
'Till oftentimes it fills the days
And many night times too,

With aching thoughts and memories
Of Christmases I spent with you.
Yes, memories do hurt, it's true
But I have this feeling too.

I'm so glad I hold these memories,
For with them I hold part of you.
So for now I'll wipe away the tears
And join with loved ones dear
To celebrate this Christmas time,
For I know that, in my heart, you're here.

Dedications to your loved ones can be featured in the newsletter. Please submit them to Michelle Husbands at husbandsm@sacda.org by the 10th of the previous month you would like the dedication to appear. Eg. Dedications for the May's newsletter should be submitted by April 10th

Memorial Quilts: If you are interested in having a picture of your lost loved one placed on a quilt, please contact your victim advocate for instructions on how to complete that process.
