

Gang Member Convicted of First-Degree Murder in South Sacramento

Sacramento County
District Attorney's Office
Semper Justitia

DATE: May 3, 2021

CASE: Lakquan Solomon (Case #19FE003568)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Kristen Andersen, Gangs & Hate Crimes Unit

Lakquan Solomon was convicted by a jury of the first-degree murder of Brandon Campbell and shooting from a motor vehicle.

Allegations of personal and intentional discharge of a firearm causing death, vicarious arming and a gang enhancement were found true on both counts. Solomon was also convicted of being a felon in possession of a firearm.

On September 28, 2017 at 3:00 a.m., Solomon and another unidentified male drove into south Sacramento. The victim, Brandon Campbell, was waiting outside of his friend's house when Solomon drove by him. After the victim spoke briefly with Solomon and the other male occupant, Solomon drove off down the road before flipping a U-turn and coming back to where the victim was standing. Solomon then shot the victim one time in the shoulder at close range with a 12-gauge shotgun. At the time of the murder, Solomon was validated as an Oak Park Blood gang member.

An allegation that Solomon suffered a prior 2011 strike conviction for robbery will be determined at sentencing.

Solomon faces a maximum sentence of 90 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for June 11, 2021, at 1:30 p.m. in Department 4 before the Honorable Steve White.

© Copyright Sacramento County District Attorney's Office | All Rights Reserved