

Defendant Sentenced for Sexually Assaulting 2 Children w/Aggravating Factors

Sacramento County District Attorney's Office

Semper Justitia

DATE: August 1, 2022

CASE: Brian Holcomb (Case #21FE016459)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Dinah Mielke, Special Assault & Child Abuse Unit

The Honorable Tami Bogert sentenced Brian Holcomb to 275 years to life in prison. On June 6, 2022, a jury convicted Holcomb of 11 counts of child sexual assault charges. The jury also found true a multi-victim enhancement and multiple aggravating factors.

Brian Holcomb sexually assaulted two girls from 2011 to 2015. The girls were 10 years old and 12 years old when the abuse began. Holcomb dragged one of the victims to a place where he forcefully sodomized her and created a list of rules which one of the victims had to follow or Holcomb would sodomize her and force her to orally copulate him. Holcomb also showed the victims pornography.