

AQR: Identifying Departures from Quality System

---

Identifying departures

5.2

5.6.a-c

Laboratory analysts are instructed to not depart from the Quality System without prior supervisory approval. In the unlikely event that an analyst departs from the Quality System without written authorization, these departures are identifiable during the casework technical review process and a Departure from Procedure form shall be completed. All casework is technically reviewed.

---